

Chase Stowell

Eugene, Oregon / 1.541.232.3749 / chase.stowell@icloud.com / chasestowell.twoeighty.net

Profile

As a recent graduate, I plan to develop my job skills, building upon diligence in research and adroit communication. My disciplinary diversity—I enjoy photography, writing, public speaking, strengthening my Spanish, and music (clarinet and piano)—is indicative of my willingness to embrace a range of new challenges.

Competencies

RESEARCH, WRITING, AND EDITING

Collaborative Research; Linfield Political Science Department (2017-2018): Contributed to Professor Nicholas Buccola's upcoming book on James Baldwin and William F. Buckley, including as a full-time research collaborator during the summer. Responsibilities include fact-checking and editing manuscripts, as well as providing memos on historical events.

Linfield History Department (2014-2015): Contributed to Professor Peter Buckingham's research on James Connolly and socialism in America, providing memos on historical figures within the socialist movement.

MARKETING, EVENT ORGANIZATION, AND TECH SUPPORT

Student Fellow; Linfield Program For Liberal Arts And Civic Engagement (2017-2018): Organized and publicized events, including civic engagement events with the elderly community and discussions with notable thinkers like Jonathan Rauch, as well as maintaining the PLACE website.

Webmaster; Linfield Political Science Department (2016-2018): Maintained and updated the Linfield Political Science and International Relations websites.

TEAMWORK AND MANUAL LABOR

Summer Employee; Lane County Public Works (2015-2016): Performed fire-prevention for mowing crews, ran elements of the paving machine on resurfacing projects.

Education

LINFIELD COLLEGE, OREGON

Graduated 2018; Magna Cum Laude, B.A. in Political Science, History Minor

Intermediate-Mid Proficiency in Spanish (ACTFL)

Elliot Tenofsky Award for Outstanding Senior in Political Science

Studied Abroad at University of Nottingham (UK), 2016

Member of Alpha Lambda Honor Society

Started Active Generational Engagement (AGE), a program that arranges conversations between Linfield students and senior citizens in the McMinnville community.

Winner of Linfield's Competitive Scholarship in History, 2014

PLEASANT HILL HIGH SCHOOL, OREGON

Graduated 2014 ; 4.19 GPA, Salutatorian (2nd of 58)

Helped raise $25,000 in Children's Miracle Network pageant, 2014

National Merit Scholar commendation, 2013

Two-time all-league athlete and team captain in both Baseball and Cross Country

References

Nicholas Buccola, Ph.D., Associate Professor at Linfield College, nbuccol@linfield.edu

Patrick Cottrell, Ph.D., Associate Professor at Linfield College, pcottre@linfield.edu